Proposed FleetGap Power Hour Session at NAFA I&E 2026

10 minutes: Welcome and Purpose

Session host Ingrid Cook Moravitz will open the Power Hour alongside the USAF Chief Adam Walker and the NAFA CEO, Bill Schankel. Together they will ground the room in the purpose of Fleet Gap, the commitment shared by SHzoom, the Department of Defense Skillbridge program, and NAFA, and the promise this initiative holds for both hiring leaders and military fleet professionals.

5 minutes: Military Fleet Professional Meet and Greet

Participants connect quickly with others from their military branch and fleet industry peers.

15 minutes: Speed Networking for Peer Mentors, Hiring Leaders, and Military Pros

Short, focused rounds that allow military talent to introduce themselves to NAFA hiring leaders. Peer mentors and mentees meet in person to discuss goals, readiness, and upcoming milestones.

15 minutes: Curriculum Review and Open Forum

Military Fleet Pros and Hiring NAFA leaders ask questions, share expectations, and give feedback on the proposed Fleet Gap curriculum.

10 minutes: Speed Interviews

Rapid interview cycles with NAFA hiring leaders to explore potential fit and opportunities.

10 minutes: Closeout and Next Steps

Final reflections, excitement points, improvement ideas, and alignment on program milestones. Session Host, USAF Chief Walker and the NAFA CEO return to the stage to close the session with clarity and intention. They will highlight the momentum created, reinforce next steps for every participant, and speak to the long-term vision that Fleet Gap is building across the fleet industry.
